

DISABILITY: OUR STORIES

Author

Bennett, Kristian

Short Abstract

Through quantitative and qualitative research parents and carers identified that health professionals require better training in 'attitudes' and communication strategies. The eLearning resource: Disabilities: Our Stories was developed to provide health professionals with some insight on having a child with a disability and strategies to improve relationships with these families.