

ACTUALISING THE RIGHT TO COMMUNICATE

Authors

Leonie McFarlane

Anne McDonald

Short Abstract

Despite having the necessary skills and equipment, many people with CCN are excluded from the AAC community because others refuse to recognize their competence or allow them to use communication aids. This presentation uses the barriers faced by the authors to argue for implementation of a universal right to communicate.