

PERFECTLY IMPERFECT

Author

Smith, Melinda

Short Abstract

This session is a chance to view the professionally edited DVD of the ground-breaking play Perfectly Imperfect, performed at The Melbourne Theatre Company's Lawler Studio in June 2010. Kate, a mother with cerebral palsy, who invites her son's three wheely aunts. What should have been a celebration of the 'miracle' boy's life, disintegrates into recrimination and hostility, triggering revelations of long hidden secrets, repressed memories and personal tragedies. This highly emotive dance-drama takes a no-holds-barred look at the question of parenthood for women with disability.