

Dr Sepehr Shakib

Dr Shakib is the Director of Clinical Pharmacology at the Royal Adelaide Hospital. he is a former National Institute of Clinical Studies fellow implementing evidence based management of heart failure at the interface between the hospital and the community. He was a former steering group member of the Australian Centre for Evidence Based Medicine, and is the author of Auditmaker, an audit tool for clinicians.